VOL. XXV, No. 47.

A TALE OF TWO COUNTIES

As Told by the Times' Correspondents in Neosho and Wilson Counties.

Erie.

Wednesday, August 11, '97.—W. R. Cline has been looking after business at Thayer and Shaw this week. Mr. Cline is making an energetic county attorney.

The Keizer threshing outfit departed for Oklahoma last week.

The city council are having a new walk laid to the court house. This is a much needed improvement.

Mrs. George Trammel, of Big Creek twp., died Monday, and was buried Tuesday in the Erie cemetery.

C. E. Allison and J. M. Allen are attending a meeting of the state Populist Central Committee at Topeka this week.

F. H. Greene left Tuesday night for Mare Island, N. Y., to begin active work as civil engineer in the navy yard at that place.

C. A. Cox has been in town this week trying to get a settlement of the Wilson judgment. His prospect for success is very bright.

The city is full of school teachers attending the normal. Quite a good deal of interest is manifested and the normal is a success.

The entertainment given by the Durrant family the first of the week was quite well attended and was considered a rare treat.

Dr. R. E. Greenwell, of St. Paul was explaining the benefits of the St. Paul Sanatorium to the faithful last Thursday. Bob is glib of tongue, and decidedly "unanimous."

The Populist Central Committee held a meeting Tuesday of this week and called their convention for August 23. Their basis of representation will give them 129 delegates, which will be the largest ever held in that party.

Alex Sargent has been awarded the contract for furnishing the coal for the school house for the coming winter.

Prof. Abbott came down from Chanute, Saturday, and spent Sunday with his family, returning to Chanute Sunday evening.

Our new cheese factory has begun operations. They are now daily receiving milk from the farmers, and turning the same into first class cheese.

Albert Mathias is compelled, on account of poor health to go to Colorado at once. He has sale bills out announcing all his stock and household goods for sale next Saturday, August 14th, at his residence, joining the corporation on the northwest. His family will go west with him.

Grandma Ferguson, mother of our townsman Dr. J. W. Ferguson, died at his residence, last Thursday morning at 6:30 o'clock. Her death was not unexpected, as she had been suffering for two years past with that dreaded disease, cancer. She was the mother of nine children, six of whom survive her, four sons and two daughters. She was a member of the Methodist Church and had been for years, and had always lived an upright and devoted life. Rev. J. B. McNary conducted the funeral services at the Galesburg cemetery, Friday at 10 o'clock a. m. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of the entire community.

To the list of the world's casualties this week, Thayer adds a suicide. That of Wm. Kiser. It seems that last Sunday afternoon, Deputy Sheriff M. S. Elliott received from County Attorney Cline, a bench warrant for the arrest of young Kiser for selling whiskey contrary to law. He went to the house of Henry Kiser, the young man's father, early Monday morning and finding young Kiser in bed, arrested him and took him to Erie. His bond was placed at $500. Kiser thought he could give the bond if brought back to Thayer. Elliott brought him back, arriving at Thayer at about 5:30 o'clock p. m. They went to the house of Kiser Sr.; as soon as they arrived, and while Elliott was getting a drink of water at the well, young Kiser stepped inside the house for a moment, and reaching up, got down a revolver which hung on a nail in the side of the wall, and put it in his pocket and was out again in a second or two. He and Elliott at once came down town and after talking to a party or two, young Kiser started around the corner of Arnold's store, walking south, Elliott following some 25 or 30 feet. When he got just in front of the lumber yard office, he pulled his revolver quick as a flash and with his left hand placed it to his head just in front and above his left ear and fired. He fell to the ground unconscious and never revived, dying Tuesday morning. There seems to be no cause known for this rash act, unless brooding over his troubles slightly unbalanced his mind for the time being. Deputy Sheriff Elliott informs us that he searched him before starting for Erie, and also at Erie before starting back, and never suspected him of having a gun until he fired the fatal shot.

John Griffin of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my pills." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled.—Boschert & Williams.
